FIRST DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT. at the

Exchange Building,
No. 111 Broadway, at 12 M.
Will be sold without reserve.
This property lays high and a cummading and is ready for immediate improvement, only four minutes from the Morrisania Horse Railroad. 25 minutes from forty-second street, by the Harlem Hailroad, and 45 minutes from Fulton slip by steamboat. This property, lying so near the city, is just the location for the man of small capital, as the price is within the reach of all. For speculative purchasors no, better property is to be found, and will probably double in value within two years; 156th street divides this property, and when fully graded will be the main avenue across from the Harlem fluer to the Sound.
Westchester avenue is graded and gas street lamps erected. Concord avenue is now being graded. The cost of grading Fulton and Jackson avenues will be very light.
This property for residences is far preferable to the lots sold at previous sale.
Certified checks and sound savings bank balances taken in payment.
